	Sommario/riassunto	The Berkeley Journal of Sociology (BJS) has been in publication since 1955. One of the only graduate-student run journals in the field of sociology, the BJS makes a special effort to publish the work of graduate students and untenured faculty. Journal volumes are organized around an annual theme. Since 2001 (Volume 45), each journal volume has included transcripts from roundtable discussions held at the BJS annual conference in Berkeley, California.
