Sommario/riassunto	This book offers a new perspective on conscience as an as yet unrealized human potential, but a potential toward which human beings are naturally driven. A distinction is made between a ""mature"" or ""healthy"" conscience - a ""conscience capable of maturation"" - and the classical notion of the superego; it also postulates that the two may represent two separate lines of development. Conscience is seen to be inseparable from consciousness; the development of a mature conscience is seen to have its foundation in the development of a true or authentic self, while the classical notion of the su

"New techniques in direct-current resistivity exploration."
"Formulas defining two types of modified Dar Zarrouk curves are used to invert Schlumberger sounding curves, uring an iterative procedure.

The number of layers, which is equal to the number of points on the inverted curve, is reduced by automatically smoothing the corresponding DZ curve."
