Sommario/riassunto	"Too often, a former Hebrew student is a lapsed Hebrew student. The paradigms, the syntactical forms, and even the alphabet can be hard to recall. The way to make Hebrew stick, like any language, is to continue to put it to use. In Ruth: A Guide to Reading Biblical Hebrew, Adam J. Howell helps intermediate readers of Hebrew work through the text of Ruth with exegetical and syntactical aids. With Howell as a guide, students will be able to mine the riches of the Hebrew text to appreciate the literary and theological significance of the book of Ruth." -- Publisher, page four of cover

Sommario/riassunto

This book analyzes the changing dynamics of competition and the emergence of deglobalization trends and processes. The authors begin by explaining the role of technology on globalization and its impact on competitive strategy. Then, they present a theoretical framework that outlines the connection between globalization and modern society. The book also delves into the shift toward deglobalization and addresses how the onset of the COVID-10 pandemic has accelerated the process. Concluding with a discussion of how the 4th Industrial Revolution has resulted in new paradigms for business, this book will fill a gap through its investigation of an emerging concept for scholars in international business. Justin Paul is Full Professor in the Ph.D & MBA programs at the University of Puerto Rico, San Juan, PR, USA and holds the title of Distinguished Scholar at Indian Institute of Management Kozhikode, India's premier business school. He serves as Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Consumer Studies and (co-) author of the best-selling textbooks Business Environment (4th edition), International Marketing, (2nd edition), Management of Banking & Financial Services (2nd edition), and Export-Import Management (2nd edition). Sanjay Dhir is an Associate Professor of Strategic Management in the Department of Management Studies, Indian Institute of Technology Delhi, New Delhi, India. He is a Fellow (Ph.D.) from the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Lucknow. He is also author of Case Studies on Strategic Management, Flexible Strategies in VUCA Markets and Global Value Chains, Flexibility and Sustainability.
