Sommario/riassunto	This book brings together works that the guests at the 10th Argentine Congress and 5th Latin American Congress of Physical Education and Sciences, held in the city of La Plata between September 9 and 13, 2013, prepared especially around the organizing theme, Practices of Physical Education, and those proposed for each of the panels that started and closed different thematic axes. The summoned authors participated with their contributions in different debates and in some cases presented the progress of this publication to enrich the presentation. Thus, the works were prepared with the possibility of subsequent adjustments to the debates generated in the event panels.
