| Sommario/riassunto | This is the first edition of Jacinta's complete work. The four books of poems that he published, between the years of 1942 and 1958, were released in small editions, long sold out. This edition contains Jacinta's complete poetry, including her published books, sparse poems and unpublished poems, the latter part of a manuscript series, produced in the author's last years, never brought before the public. The volume also includes a complete prose by Jacinta, the journalist's biography and an image notebook, containing photos of Jacinta and important people and places in her life. |
