Sommario/riassunto	The book inaugurates a series created to enhance the activity conducted in the Research Doctorates of Technology of Architecture and it does so by presenting the results of the first seminar of the Italian DdR. The didactic and scientific value of this innovative experience is testified by the interventions and the work themes addressed that outline the research scenario and the proposals for the future. For this reason, the volume - and the series - are also proposed with a didactic function on several levels (orienting those who approach the subject on the contents that the sector deals with in Italy) and as a tool for professional updating aimed at achieving the highest quality levels.
