Sommario/riassunto	Evitant de prendre position sur l'existence et le sens d'une relation causale entre l'ideologie et l'action sociale, mais considerant l'une et l'autre comme deux expressions homologues d'une meme realite, la position d'une instance sociale en termes de domination, l'auteur tente une lecture de l'evolution de l'influence du catholicisme quebecois au cours des dernieres decennies. The author avoids taking a stand on the debate over the existence and direction of a causal relationship between ideology and social action she prefers to consider both as the homologous expressions of the same reality the domination of a social institution. Within this framework, an analysis is made of the evolution of the influence of Quebec catholicism during the last decades.
