

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910135126103321
Titolo	Drugs // Noel Merino, book editor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Farmington Hills, Mich. : , : Greenhaven Press, a part of Gale, Cengage Learning, , 2015
ISBN	0-7377-7325-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (147 pages) : color illustrations
Collana	Teen rights and freedoms
Disciplina	344.73/0793
Soggetti	Students - Drug testing - Law and legislation - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages 138-140) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Student fourth amendment rights are more limited than the rights of adults / Richard Fossey -- Student drug testing has constitutional limits / Patrick D. Pauken -- Public schools may search students in order to maintain discipline : the Supreme Court's decision / Byron White -- Schools may test students involved in athletics for drugs : the Supreme Court's decision / Antonin Scalia -- Schools may test students involved in extracurricular activities for drugs : the Supreme Court's decision / Clarence Thomas -- The Supreme Court's ruling in Earls teaches students the wrong lesson / Richard Glen Boire -- The lawyer for the Earls defendant laments the court's decision : personal narrative / Graham Boyd, as told to Janelle Brown -- Student drug testing can be a component of drug use prevention / National Institute on Drug Abuse -- Court gives school drug-testing an A / Craig M. Bradley -- Drug testing students involved in athletics can be a benefit / Robert A. Stinchcomb -- Random drug testing of students violates their state privacy rights : the (Washington) State Supreme Court's decision / Richard B. Sanders -- No evidence supports the efficacy of random student drug testing / Oscar G. Bukstein -- Educators believe random student drug testing has benefits / Office of National Drug Control Policy -- Schools that conduct unwarranted student searches violate students' rights : the Supreme Court's decision / David Souter -- The student plaintiff in Redding describes her search by school officials : personal narrative / Savana Redding.
Sommario/riassunto	Examines a broad range of perceived or actual legal rights and freedoms that impact the lives of young American teens. This volume focuses on the law and legislation concerning the rights of students regarding drug testing.
