Sommario/riassunto	Secrets and lies have been the foundation of Lucy Washburn's life. We're taught to learn from our past, and she's definitely learned from hers. Now that she knows what not to do and whom not to trust, her life is finally coming together, just as she hoped. Until she meets him. Drake Prescott was that kid; you know the type. Both an athlete and a scholar, he was determined to achieve his goals and dreams, the most important being elected president of the United States. There isn't anything he desires more than to hear Hail to the Chief played in his honor. Now an incumbent U.S. senator seeking reelection and paving his road to the White House, he's living his dreams. Until he meets her. Incumbent is a standalone novel intended for readers over 18
