

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910136573103321
Titolo	Explosives detection canines and homeland security : background and analyses // Wayne Howards, editor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Novinka, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	1-5361-0191-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (96 pages)
Collana	Defense, Security and Strategies
Disciplina	363.25
Soggetti	Explosives - Detection Search dogs
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Explosives detection canines: TSA has enhanced its canine program, but opportunitites may exist to reduce costs / Jennifer Grover -- Testimony of Kimberly Hutchinson, Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Training and Development, Transportation Security Administration. Hearing on "Dogs of DHS: how canine programs contribute to homeland security" -- Statement of Cynthia M. Otto, Executive Director, Penn Vet Working Dog Center. Hearing on "Dogs of DHS: how canine programs contribute to homeland security" -- TSA Explosives Detection Canine Program: actions needed to analyze data and ensure canine teams are effectively utilized / United States Government Accountability Office -- Testimony of Chris Connell, President, Commodity Forwarders, Inc. Hearing on "Utilizing canine teams to detect explosives and mitigate threats".