Sommario/riassunto	In Christian Apocalyptic Texts in Islamic Messianic Discourse Orkhan Mir-Kasimov offers an account of the interpretation of these Christian texts by Fal Allh Astarbd (d. 796/1394), the founder of a mystical and messianic movement which was influential in medieval Iran and Anatolia. This interpretation can be situated within the tradition of 'positive' Muslim hermeneutics of the Christian and Jewish scriptures which was particularly developed in Sh and especially Ismal circles. Fal Allh incorporates the Christian apocalyptic texts into an Islamic eschatological context, combining them with Qurn and adth material. In addition to an introductory study, the book contains a critical edition and an English translation of the relevant passages from Fal Allh's magnum opus, the Jvidn-nma-yi kabr .
