Sommario/riassunto

Gone Beyond, authored by Karl Brunnhölzl, is an in-depth exploration of the Sutras and the Ornament of Clear Realization within the Tibetan Kagyu tradition. This scholarly work delves into the Mahayana doctrine of emptiness, providing translations and commentaries that illuminate the complex teachings of these texts. The book includes insights from Indian and Tibetan commentaries, focusing on the progressive levels of realization of bodhisattvas, from novice stages to buddhahood. It serves as a comprehensive reference for scholars and practitioners of Tibetan Buddhism, particularly those interested in the paths and bhumis. The book is part of the Tsadra Foundation Series, aiming to make authoritative Tibetan Buddhist texts accessible to English-speaking audiences.
