Sommario/riassunto

This book is the second volume of Jigme Lingpa's 'Treasury of Precious Qualities,' accompanied by a detailed commentary by Kangyur Rinpoche. It continues the structure of a lamrim, presenting the stages of the path in Tibetan Buddhism. The text delves into tantric teachings and the Great Perfection, regarded as the pinnacle of spiritual training in the Nyingma School. The book discusses lineage, empowerment, and the stages of generation and perfection in tantra, as well as the doctrinal background supporting the Great Perfection practice. Kangyur Rinpoche, a renowned scholar and tertön, provides insights into these advanced practices. This volume serves practitioners and scholars of Tibetan Buddhism, offering a comprehensive overview of the tantric path and the Great Perfection. It is a valuable resource for understanding the spiritual and philosophical tenets of the Nyingma tradition.
