| Note generali | "Launched in 2012, TV/Series is the first journal to publish articles, in English and in French, addressing audiovisual serial fiction from all over the world. Series are analyzed as narrative, aesthetic and ideological artworks existing on an ever-increasing number of platforms The journal is part of S.E.R.I.E.S. (Scholars Exchanging and Researching on International Entertainment Series), a wider network of TV series studies. It received the support of GUEST-Normandie, a research programme funded by the region of Haute-Normandie."--Journal home page, viewed November 27, 2018. Refereed/Peer-reviewed |
