| Sommario/riassunto | This book, edited by Vincent Libert, Anne Jacob, and Cécile Kowal, focuses on addressing domestic violence by providing assistance to | perpetrators. It documents the methodologies and approaches developed by Praxis, an organization dedicated to this cause for over twenty years. The book explores themes such as the history of Praxis's approach, group methodologies, and the challenges faced by users within the system. It also discusses specific topics like dealing with psychosis in groups and support for female perpetrators of domestic violence. The book targets professionals and stakeholders in social work and counseling, aiming to share experiences and best practices in the field. The publication coincides with the 20th anniversary of Praxis, marking a significant moment for reflection and future planning.
