Note generali	From the publisher: "Revived as an electronic open access publication with Vol 40. on Jan. 1, 2016. There are not separate issues in the traditional sense, however every post or article includes its date of publication, and each volume's postings are separate and distinguishable." "The History of Anthropology Review became an online publication with volume 40 in 2016, and changed its title from History of Anthropology Newsletter to History of Anthropology Review on October 18, 2019. Content is updated continually, and subscribers receive weekly emails with links to new content."-- Bottom of home page. Although the title officially changed on October 18, 2019, the publisher has stated that all postings for 2019 should be considered part of, and are included in v. 43, issued in 2019.
