

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910140499303321
Autore	Goudeau J
Titolo	The imagined and real Jerusalem in art and architecture // edited by Jeroen Goudeau, Mariette Verhoeven, Wouter Weijers
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Brill, 2015 Leiden, Netherlands : , : Brill, , 2014 ©2014
ISBN	90-04-27085-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (303 p.)
Collana	Radboud Studies in Humanities, , 2213-9729 ; ; Volume 2
Disciplina	704.9/499569442
Soggetti	Humanities Jerusalem In art Jerusalem Symbolic representation
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Preliminary Material -- Introduction / Jeroen Goudeau , Mariëtte Verhoeven and Wouter Weijers -- 1 Sites and Senses / Anneke Schulenberg -- 2 The Green Line / Mette Gieskes -- 3 Jerusalem as Trauerarbeit / Wouter Weijers -- 4 Ezekiel for Solomon / Jeroen Goudeau -- 5 Jerusalem as Palimpsest / Mariëtte Verhoeven -- 6 Translations of the Sacred City between Jerusalem and Rome / Sible de Blaauw -- 7 The Reconquered Jerusalem Represented / Katja Boertjes -- 8 'As if they had physically visited the holy places' / Hanneke van Asperen -- 9 Jerusalem in Renaissance Italy / Bram de Klerck -- 10 Overdetermination of a Heavenly Jerusalem / Daan Van Speybroeck -- 11 'You want to take us to Jerusalem ...' / Rudie van Leeuwen -- Index / Jeroen Goudeau , Mariëtte Verhoeven and Wouter Weijers.
Sommario/riassunto	In The Imagined and Real Jerusalem in Art and Architecture specialists in various fields of art history, from Early Christian times to the present, articulate a variety of cultural, religious and political implications of the visualization of Jerusalem. This collection of essays calls attention to two axes emerging from the study of Jerusalem in art: on the one hand, the volatile contemporary situation, and on the other hand, the abiding chain of meanings that history imparts to the city.

From a contemporary perspective and within a broad historical context, the book discusses in depth a series of Western artworks, artefacts, and buildings providing new insights into memory processes and mechanisms of representation of Jerusalem.

---