Sommario/riassunto	Welcome, the House is yours! If you take the risk of crossing these pages, you may discover paths taken by individuals who are not afraid and / or ashamed of calling themselves (self) "militants" - those and those who articulate themselves to think, promote and build mental health. in the grove of the Brazilian Psychiatric Reform. The texts presented, in this scenario, are configured as a political and social activism, which allow (re) thinking, reviewing, projecting, redecorating the process of deinstitutionalization and the effectiveness of one of its devices - the Therapeutic Residences.
