

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910143258703321
Autore	Moe Karine S
Titolo	Women, Family, and Work [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Oxford, : John Wiley & Sons, Ltd., 2007
ISBN	1-280-36190-5 9786610361908 0-470-70378-4 0-470-75564-4 1-4051-4198-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (254 p.)
Disciplina	330/.082
Soggetti	Families Sex role Sexual division of labor Women Work and family Business Work and family - Economic aspects Sex role - Employment Women - Economic aspects Labor & Workers' Economics Business & Economics Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	WOMEN, FAMILY, AND WORK; Contents; Contributors; Preface; Part I Setting the Stage; Part II The Economics of Marriage; Part III The Division of Work in the Household; Part IV The Economics of Childbearing and Childcaring; Part V The Gender Gap in Earnings; Index;
Sommario/riassunto	Women, Family, and Work is a collection of original essays on topics related to the economics of gender and the family. Written by leading thinkers in the field, the essays apply traditional economic theory to non-traditional topics, while also stretching and bending neoclassical economic thought to provide a better model of economic interactions.
