Sommario/riassunto

The book is an analysis of cultural, social as well as political economic expressions of neoliberalization and argues for an appreciation of the relational geographies of neoliberalization. In-depth empirical research spanning a variety of world regions. A range of topics including homelessness, comparative politics, economic development and social policy. Reviews how neoliberalism is enacted as a way to highlight the complexity and contingency of this economic model. Engages in debates within anthropology, gender studies, geography, health studies, international studies, planning
