

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910145653803321
Titolo	The anti-union
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Dublin], : James Moore, No. 45, College-green, 1798-1799
Soggetti	Political satire Politics and government Early works. History Periodicals. Periodicals18th century Re-setting Ireland History Rebellion of 1798 Periodicals Early works to 1800 Ireland History Union, 1801 Periodicals Early works to 1800 Ireland Politics and government 1760-1820 Periodicals Early works to 1800 Irlande Histoire 1800 (Union) Periodiques Ireland
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Periodico
Note generali	Imprint (no. 1) from p. [1]; other issues have colophons which vary slightly, e.g. no. 32, p. 128: Dublin : Printed by James Moore, 45, College-green. Printed in two columns; with continuous pagination. Text of no. 32 reads in part: "we deem it expedient to suspend the publication of this paper, until a future occasion shall call for our services." Complete run of a thrice-weekly periodical, sponsored by the Opposition Party, against the Union of Ireland/Great Britain; modelled on the earlier Anti-Jacobin; chief contributors: Peter Burrowes, Plunket, Charles Bushe, Thomas Wallace. Thomas Gould, Smiley (cf. Aspinall, Politics & the press).

