Record Nr. UNINA9910148609603321 Autore Kashubsky Mikhail Titolo Offshore oil and gas installations security: an international perspective // Mikhail Kashubsky Milton Park, Abingdon, Oxon;; New York, NY:,: Informa Law from Pubbl/distr/stampa Routledge, , 2016 ISBN 1-317-74614-7 1-315-79498-5 1-317-74615-5 Edizione [1st ed.] 1 online resource (521 pages): illustrations Descrizione fisica Disciplina 343.07/72 622.33819 Offshore oil industry - Law and legislation Soggetti Offshore gas industry - Security measures Lingua di pubblicazione Inglese Formato Materiale a stampa Livello bibliografico Monografia Based on author's thesis (doctoral - Faculty of Law, University of Note generali Wollongong, 2011), issued under title: Offshore petroleum security: analysis of offshore security threats, target attractiveness, and the international legal framework for the protection and security of offshore petroleum installations. Includes bibliographical references and index. Nota di bibliografia Nota di contenuto Offshore petroleum security context -- Offshore assets and operations -- Offshore security threats -- Offshore target selection considerations -- Legal status of offshore oil and gas installations -- Pre-9/11 International regulatory framework -- Post-9/11 International regulatory responses -- International oil and gas industry responses --Conclusion. Sommario/riassunto How common are attacks on offshore oil and gas installations? Who attacks offshore installations? Why are they attacked? How are they attacked? How is their security regulated at international level? How has the oil industry responded to improve the security of offshore installations? How can the existing security arrangements of offshore installations be improved? This timely publication answers these questions and examines the protection and security of offshore oil and gas installations from a global, industry-wide and company-level perspective. This is an indispensable reference work for oil and gas industry professionals, company security officers, policy makers, maritime lawyers and academics worldwide.