

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910148762603321
Autore	Strathern Paul <1940->
Titolo	Dewey: Philosophy in an Hour
Pubbl/distr/stampa	HarperCollins UK
ISBN	0-00-753051-X
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Musica
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Sommario/riassunto	Philosophy for busy people who are on the go and want to learn more about the great people and thinkers that have influenced and shaped the way we live. Listen to a succinct account of the philosophy of Dewey in just one hour. In early twentieth-century America John Dewey was regarded as the foremost philosopher of his age - no mean feat when his colleagues included the likes of Russell, Wittgenstein and Heidegger. Dewey produced a distinctly American philosophy, essentially different from that of his European contemporaries - his pragmatic theory of 'instrumentalism' or 'experimentalism', relying on modern experimental methods to prove truth and reality. Dewey saw the ultimate reality as being nothing more or less than that which we encounter in everyday life - there is no mystery hidden within. This audiobook is a concise, expert account of Dewey's life and philosophical ideas, which is entertainingly written and is above all easy listening. Also included are selections from Dewey's work, suggested further reading and chronologies that place Dewey in the context of the broader scheme of philosophy.