From the iconic series with millions and millions of books and calendars in print, this is the essential and deliciously readable guide for armchair travelers and adventurers who want to know the best places to visit in all 50 states and Canada. It's the go-to for anyone planning a solo road trip, weekend getaway, or vacation with the kids. This front-to-back, page-by-page revision ensures that every entry is current, and phone numbers, web addresses, and other nuts-and-bolts info is correct. Closed and out-of-date listings have been replaced by exciting new attractions, from Miami's Perez Art Museum to Idaho's Wine Country to Manhattan's High Line. With 1,000 spectacular destinations and 600 transporting photographs, now more vibrant in full color, the book includes where to stay, where to dine, and the best time to visit. Special indices point readers to excellent adventure travel, top cultural institutions, great golf, nature's wonders, plus more than 150 places of particular interest to families"--
