

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910149422703321
Autore	Ferrer Barbara (Barbara Caridad)
Titolo	Between here and gone // Barbara Ferrer
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Diversion Books
ISBN	1-62681-712-X
Disciplina	813/.6
Soggetti	Cuban Americans Man-woman relationships Women journalists Nineteen sixties Fiction History Cuba History 1959-1990 Fiction New York (N.Y.) History 1951- Fiction Cuba New York (State) New York
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Sommario/riassunto	"In 1959 Cuba, Natalia San Martin was nothing short of a princess....All that changed on the fateful New Year's Eve when Fidel Castro and his followers seized control of the country, with tragic consequences for not only the island, but Natalia herself....Five years later, in 1960s New York, she's known as Natalie Martin.... When the enigmatic Jack Roemer offers her a job writing the memoir of a starlet on the brink of self-destruction, she sees not only opportunity, but unexpected echoes of a fairytale long forgotten....peeling back the layers of someone else's past forces Natalie to confront her own."--Publisher website.