

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910150232403321
Autore	Done Judith
Titolo	Brilliant graduate career handbook [[electronic resource] /] / Judith Done and Rachel Mulvey
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Harlow, : Prentice Hall, 2011
ISBN	1-283-73363-3 0-273-74489-5
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xvii, 277 p.)
Altri autori (Persone)	MulveyRachel
Disciplina	331.70235
Soggetti	College graduates - Employment Vocational guidance Careers Business & Economics Labor & Workers' Economics Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Contents 1. What are your options after university? 2. The Graduate Job Market 3. Labour market information: analysis of what graduates do 4. Graduate training schemes 5. Job Opportunities: researching the market 6. Work: benefits of employment without pay 7. Dates and deadlines - your timeline for action 8. Harnessing natural energy: buddying up and sharing experience 9. Making applications - how to make your degree really count. 10. Planning for travel and what to do when you return 11. Postgraduate study: choosing a course and making a good application 12. Identifying your skills, interests and values 13. My decision in my context: choosing the right career, finding a suitable job; other considerations e.g. mobility, family commitments
Sommario/riassunto	This guide is aimed at undergraduates as they consider what to do with their degree once they have graduated. The emphasis is on the labour market: what employers want, what graduates have to offer. Readers will learn how to navigate the labour market and how to keep going when the going gets tough.

