Sommario/riassunto	This title examines the problem of corruption in British urban society and politics between 1930 and 1995. It is not a conventional study of the politics of local government since it seeks to place corruption in urban societies in a wider cultural context. It reclaims the study of corruption from political scientists and sociologists for historians but provides theoretical explanations of the causes of corruption testing them against real cases.

Sommario/riassunto	Avec une variabilité dans la force et l'exclusivité, due aux conditions spécifiques d'interdépendance entre l'industrie et l'espace, les centres sidérurgiques littoraux marquent la personnalité et l'organisation de leur milieu d'insertion non seulement en influençant les structures et le fonctionnement de leur économie, mais aussi en y déterminant les niveaux et les modes de vie, le cadre et la qualité de la vie.
