

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910154340303321
Autore	Panagariya Arvind
Titolo	State level reforms and growth and development in Indian States
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Oxford University Press, , 2014
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource : illustrations (black and white)
Collana	Studies in Indian economic policies State level reforms, growth, and development in Indian States
Disciplina	338.954
Soggetti	Economic development - India Business & Economics Economic History India Economic policy 1991- India Economic conditions 1991- India Social conditions 1991-
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: the states of India -- Growth and development in the Indian states : an overview -- Economic transformation in Indian States -- States development expenditures and implications for regional development -- Policies for faster growth in agriculture -- Industry and services : what the states can do -- Urban development -- Health outcomes in the Indian States -- Health infrastructure and other proximate determinants of health outcomes -- Health policy reform -- Elementary education: outcomes and policies -- Higher education : progress and prospects.
Sommario/riassunto	With a population of 1.2 billion, India is many countries. Ten of its states have populations equalling or exceeding that of the United Kingdom. Therefore, to fully understand the current experiment in economic reforms in the country, it must be studied it at the level of the state. In this spirit, the present book provides an analysis of how the national reforms have shaped the economies of different states in India.