

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910154651303321
Autore	Ingham Barbara
Titolo	International economics : a European focus / / Barbara Ingham
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Harlow, England : , : Prentice Hall, Financial Times, an imprint of Pearson Education, , 2004
ISBN	1-280-56134-3 9786610561346 1-4058-7029-X
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (359 pages) : color illustrations, tables
Disciplina	337
Soggetti	International economic relations - History - 20th century Europe Foreign economic relations History 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Sommario/riassunto	International Economics is aimed at undergraduate students taking a course in international economics. As well as students specialising in economics, the book will be useful to students on business studies, management and social science programmes. This new international economics text reflects the unprecedented changes which have occurred in the world economy over the past quarter century. Rooted in classical analysis and the doctrine of comparative advantage, the book covers the central components of an international economics in a stimulating and student-friendly way. This introductory, concise and non-technical approach to international economics deals with issues in the international environment which are of relevance to UK/European students, relating international economics to the European experience wherever it is appropriate to do so.