"Strong Start--K-2 is a research-based curriculum for early educators that can be used across all developmental levels to promote social-emotional skills and competencies for the K-2 age range. This innovative social and emotional learning curriculum is filled with engaging, thought-provoking classroom activities that help students develop vital life-long skills, including understanding emotions, managing anger, relieving stress, solving interpersonal problems, and more. The curriculum runs between 10 to 12 weeks and takes approximately 45 minutes per lesson. Every school and early intervention program will benefit from the lasting effects of the curriculum through strong, resilient students with fewer mental health and behavioral programs and better academic outcomes. Major revisions to this second edition include a crosswalk for each lesson with the five social emotional learning objectives from CASEL, fidelity checklists, information on how the curriculum fits into the RTI/MTSS framework in tiers 1 and 2, shorter scripts, and directions on how to chunk the lessons into more manageable parts. These revisions were informed by extensive customer reviews of the first edition"--
