

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910155504903321
Autore	Carnegie Andrew
Titolo	Round the World
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Sheba Blake Publishing, 2013
ISBN	1-304-62693-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (693 p.)
Soggetti	Free Classics
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	ROUND THE WORLD; PREFACE; CHAPTER ONE
Sommario/riassunto	Andrew Carnegie (1835 - 1919) was an American entrepreneur, businessman, and industrialist of Scottish extraction, known for his role as a major philanthropist. Carnegie's was the classic ""rags to riches"" tale, as he rose up by his bootstraps from a bobbin factory worker, a bill logger, and a messenger boy - eventually climbing his way through of the ranks of a telegraph company, where he made the leap into steel refining. When he sold the Carnegie Steel Company to J. P. Morgan for 480 million, it would become U.S. Steel. Carnegie donated most of his fortune to establish libraries, and other