Sommario/riassunto	When world-famous violinist Andres Valentine is pushed from a window to his death by Herr Maestro Wilhelm Kering, he is snatched back from the abyss by a doctor well-versed in reanimation. Contrary to popular belief, Andres's life up to this point has not been filled with opulent soirees and adoring fans, but is controlled by a hellish force, a being of the dark fae - Azgarth. When Valentine confides to Henri that he wants to be rid of Azgarth's bonds, Henri vows to find a way to free him, never expecting to get caught in the snare of the fae master.
