

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910156220803321   |
| Autore                  | Gray Nigel  |
| Titolo                  | Laugh, You Buggers, Laugh   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Vivid Publishing  |
| ISBN                    | 1-925442-45-4   |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (150 p.)  |
|                         |   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
|                         |   |
| Sommario/riassunto      | Laugh, You Buggers, Laugh is no ordinary collection of poems. Nigel Gray led an extraordinary life in extraordinary times. He was a political activist and performance poet in the UK during the days of rage and hope, flower power and free love, radical social change and political upheaval that typified the 1960s and 70s. He travelled on political forays to Southeast Asia, Africa, Ireland, and mainland Europe. This is a selection of poems from that time set in a context that explains the situations and experiences that inspired them. Nigel Gray, an Irish-born West Australian, is the multi-award-winning author of a hundred published books for adults and children. |