Sommario/riassunto	Nineteen-year-old Mace Danner is a college freshman-and a male prostitute. He specializes as a submissive-for-hire to dominant clients. Mace has never experienced any erotic longings, but his profession satisfies much darker needs. He believes he deserves the abuse because he was responsible for the death of his brother. When ill-treatment at the hands of customers isn't penance enough, Mace turns to the bottle, hoping to drink away the demons still plaguing him.RA Dex Hammel doesn't like the road he sees Mace going down, and he offers his help before it's too late. There's no denying the chemistry between the two young men, but a lingering lack of physical desire continues to confuse and upset Mace. He seems set on destroying himself, and Dex might not be able to save him.
