| Sommario/riassunto      | Ready for a little small town fooling around? Welcome back to Madison Falls where romance is the perfect mix of sweet and spicy! One Last Call, Book 4 in the Madison Falls series by romance author Susan Behon is a contemporary romantic suspense that will keep you turning the pages from beginning to end. Sarah Brandon is having the night from Hell. Thanks to a deer playing chicken in the middle of the road, Sarah is forced to make a frantic ditch dive and gets stuck in her wrecked vehicle. Fiercely independent, the idea of being a damsel in distress chafes more than the seat belt holding her in at an odd angle. Stranded and needing a rescue, the last person she expects to be her knight in shining armor is Josh Logan. Even with the sexy southern drawl and bad-boy charm, her long lost love could just as well stay lost as far as Sarah is concerned. She's had it with men. With a cheating ex-husband trying to win her back and a too sexy for his own good ex-boyfriend trying to make amends, she doesn't need any more trouble. Trouble finds her anyway when it comes to light that the cause of her accident is no accident. Someone is out to hurt her, and Josh wants to protect her before it's too late. Josh considers it fate that he finally has a chance to explain to Sarah why he left town without a word the summer after graduation. It was years ago, but he never stopped loving her. Secrets from the past and threats from the present collide in a dangerous game that could cost Sarah her life. One kiss at a time, Josh is out to prove | that he would slay dragons for her if she would only give a lost love found a second chance. Content Notes: Spicy, Contemporary, Romantic Suspense
