Sommario/riassunto	Set in an alternate universe on the planet Whell, Jae is an Otism on a quest set by his dying mother to discover the meaning of a mysterious riddle, "Out of one comes death, out of another life." He must discover it before she dies and thus begins a race to discover the truths his mother desperately seeks. This is a fantasy adventure that will take the reader through spectacular landscapes not of this world, meeting creatures of another dimension. Lacking the confidence of youth, naive and anxious, Jae begins to find that the journey becomes part of the answer to not only the riddle, but to his own life. He learns of the true nature of others, including himself, and makes profound new friendships that gradually lead him to unravel the meaning to the riddle. Powerful forces lie in his path forcing decisions that will affect his destiny and threaten those he has grown to love. A wise old prophet points Jae towards a clue in the unsettled City of Mundon, a hiding place of "The Book of All Answers." Royal betrayal and political upheaval shake Jae's efforts to retrieve what he came for, but eventually, he makes a remarkable discovery - one that will change the world he lives.
