

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910157421103321
Autore	Barden Sean
Titolo	Elm Park 1626-1954 [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Belfast, : Ulster Historical Foundation, 2012
ISBN	1-908448-70-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (217 p.)
Disciplina	371.82
Soggetti	Education Social Sciences History of Education Electronic books. Northern Ireland Education History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Elm Park 1626-1954: Country House to Preparatory School; Title Page; Copyright Page; Contents; Foreword; Preface; List of Subscribers; Introduction: Prep Schools; Elm Park House: The Estate and its History; Elm Park School; The Founders; Integration; The School Day; Comings and Goings; Organised Entertainment; Organised Sport; The Glen; Home Comforts, Food and Health; Food; Sickness; Chilly Weather; Academic Standards; Teaching Staff; Headmasters; Teachers; Woodwork, Art and Music; Non-Teaching Staff; Matrons; Household and Outdoor Staff; After Elm Park; Chronological Summary; Elm Park Today AppendicesBibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	This beautifully illustrated book by Sean Barden draws on material collated by the "old boys" of the school. It is much more than simply a chronicle of the school, however, as the history of Elm Park and the families associated with it are covered from the early seventeenth century through to the beginning of the twentieth.