Sommario/riassunto	The first collection of short stories from this award-winning author, and a varied collection at that. From the human drama in the corporate world of technology and high-finance, through airports and television studios to a more traditional setting in the Bolivian Andes, she writes in a clear and lucid style, always fresh and readable with a wry humour. Please note that this book is in not in the English language; it is an Irish-language work only.
