Sommario/riassunto	Mira MacDonald, a proud lesbian, and Rob Stevens, gay but in the closet, don't have it easy at their high school. Luckily they've always had each other and their close friendship to rely on, and it makes facing the bullies a little easier. At least for Mira. Rob is also struggling with untreated depression, and lately, Mira's sweet and funny friend has become increasingly paranoid, suspicious, and obsessed with death. Things go even further downhill when Mira begins dating Talia Acevedo and Rob becomes convinced Talia is driving a wedge between them. Mira knows Rob needs her, but his jealousy and irrational fears are becoming harder to balance with her relationship with her girlfriend. Add to that escalating harassment from bullies, and Rob is being driven closer and closer to an edge Mira worries she can't pull him back from. But she has no idea how serious the situation is until, during one of their midnight chats, Rob reveals he has a solution--a desperate final measure to put an end to the bullying... permanently. This time, trying to help her friend and save the school could cost Mira her life.
