Sommario/riassunto	For many Christians there is a constant internal struggle to stop 'doing' and start 'being' before God. This inner conflict is perfectly depicted in the biblical record of two sisters of Bethany: Mary and Martha in Luke 10. In this book the author, Jennifer, shares an encounter over seven days with her Heavenly Father in which He challenges, teaches and leads her into a deeper intimacy with Him. God gives Jennifer a powerful revelation of His love, to learn to be still before Him and find all encompassing peace. In this deep, personal and insightful book rooted in Scripture, you will find truths for your journey and tools to help you make the transition from striving to stillness, peace and intimacy before God.
