Sommario/riassunto	1899--40,000 Boer farmers declare war on the British Empire, defeat the most experienced regular army of the day, and make it a capital offence to shoot a British general. It was the last of the Gentlemen's Wars and the first of the modern wars. But for the blood-stained lessons Learned on the veld, 1914 might well have ended in defeat. 'An excellent book'--British Army Review 'Admirable...with an intimate picture of many of the commanders involved, of the notorious actions in the First two years of the war: Belmont, Modder River, Magersfontein, Colenso, Spion Kop'--The Observer 'Baring Pemberton has made lively use of unpublished letters, diaries and suchlike evidence...critical and fair'--Irish Times
