Sommario/riassunto	This book provides a comprehensive guide to creating sculptures using beads. It offers detailed instructions for making various figurines, including stylized human and animal figures, that can be used as decorative compositions. The book emphasizes creativity, encouraging readers to modify designs and colors to suit their preferences. It includes step-by-step instructions complemented by photographs and color diagrams. The book also discusses necessary materials such as beads, threads, needles, and other tools, and explores different beading techniques like mosaic and monastery weaving. It is intended for craft enthusiasts of all ages, especially those interested in developing fine motor skills and artistic taste.
