Sommario/riassunto	 Mary Ann Rivers's Burnside Series returns with My Only Sunshine, a heart-rending and satisfying romantic novella featuring a musician who appeared as a minor character in Laugh. John Lake owes his label an album-and has for months. Alone in his farmhouse studio outside of Lakefield, Ohio, he hears the music, but he won't write it down. All the songs remind him of her. Fifteen years ago, Mallory Evans was a fairy-haired warrior-poet. John couldn't figure out why no one in high school noticed. He noticed, and he came to her window every evening before darkness came and the private violence of
