Sommario/riassunto	Trapped and alone, she turns to the one man she left so long ago... Choosing her career over love years ago, Jessie Morales is finally reaping the rewards of her fateful decision. Just as she's relishing in the idea of a possible promotion, Jessie finds herself trapped in an elevator after a life-threatening earthquake, questioning the path her life has taken. LAPD officer Cameron Becker would do anything for his ex, so when she calls him, frantic for help, he drops everything to be there for her. When the immediate danger passes and old yearnings arise, Cameron and Jessie can't resist what they still feel. With their families desperate to keep them apart and their careers still tugging them in different directions, can they rely on fate to keep them right where they belong--together again?
