Sommario/riassunto	With her reputation in tatters, debutante Violet Creed is forced to exchange her life of luxury for one of uncertainty. Mark Afton wants nothing more than to take his rightful place as the leader of the Bayou Pack, but he needs a mate. Is Violet Mark's destined mate, or is their attraction merely Voodoo magic? Haley Whitehall is pleased to present Alpha's Voodoo, Book 1 of her hot, new, paranormal romance series, Bayou Pack. Are curses real or merely imagined? Violet Creed is a colored New Orleans debutante. She was brought up with servants and a strict set of rules regarding propriety, and her papa never approved of her interest in Voodoo. One night she sneaks out of the house and attends one of Marie Laveau's gatherings--where she loses her virginity and her reputation. Turned out by her papa, Violet is destined for a life on the streets until Madam Dawn saves her. Cursed to live as a wolf shifter, Mark Afton is a wealthy lawyer and heir to the Bayou Pack. Unfortunately, he can't take over leadership from his uncle without a mate. Wanting to escape his mother's endless matchmaking attempts, he accepts Madam Dawn's invitation to sail on the maiden voyage of the Southern Rose and enjoy the pleasurable company of her ladies. One of Madam Dawn's recent hires catches his attention. He is drawn to Violet immediately. Could she be his mate or is their attraction merely Voodoo?
