Sommario/riassunto	Black Ops team member Jay Fischer has unexpectedly fallen in love with his target, Dr. Elizabeth Ross, who may be working with a known terrorist organization to develop a deadly weapon. But the more Jay learns about her, the more he is convinced she is just a pawn in a deadly game. When it becomes evident Jay is right, he must find a way to protect her, even if it means sacrificing himself to secure her freedom. Perception, A Retribution Novel by Edie Jo Gibson is the action-packed next chapter of her contemporary romance series.
