Sommario/riassunto	This book explores the concept of building a thriving family life grounded in spiritual values and practical strategies. Authored by Mark and Lisa Scandrette, it emphasizes the importance of spiritual formation within the family and provides actionable steps for creating a nurturing and connected family environment. The authors share their experiences of working with families through a faith-based nonprofit and their personal journey of raising their own family. The book is filled with practical ideas aimed at transforming family dynamics and fostering a culture of safety, love, and growth. It is intended for parents and families seeking to develop a strong family unit that functions cohesively and fulfills its divine purpose.
