Sommario/riassunto	Regula Gurtner's 'Bis morgen – in zweieinhalb Jahren zwischen Schleswig und Havanna' is a travel memoir chronicling an extensive sailing journey aboard the BALU. Spanning over 16,000 nautical miles and lasting two and a half years, the narrative details the challenges and joys of life at sea. The journey takes readers from Schleswig across the Atlantic, touching the coasts of Europe, the Caribbean, and the United States before returning to the Baltic Sea. The book explores themes of adventure, resilience, and the unexpected nature of sailing. The intended audience includes sailing enthusiasts and those interested in travel and personal exploration.
