Sommario/riassunto	The last few years have seen a major rethinking of some of the hallowed assumptions of range ecology and range management practice. This book examines the management of policy implications of this new ecological thinking for pastoral development in dryland areas. With examples drawn from all over Africa, the contributors examine the consequences of living with uncertainty for pastoral development planning, range and fodder management, drought responses, livestock marketing, resource tenure, institutional development and pastoral administration.

Sommario/riassunto	Re-Release: (Hearts Afire: February, 2-2-09),br>When Peter O'Connor pulls the djinn Adara from an inferno, he unwittingly becomes her new master. Freedom finally becomes a possibility for the long enslaved spirit, as Peter has no idea what she is. If only her body didn't react to his touch with flames of desire. Captive Flame by Rhiannon Leith ... the Some Like It Hot Collection just keeps getting better!As a djinn, a being formed of fire, Adara has spent centuries enslaved to the human Magi, passed from one to another, made to do their bidding. She yearns for freedom. She yearns for love.When firefighter Peter O'Connor pulls her out of an inferno, he snatches her from her current Magus. This new master has no idea of what or how powerful she is, and the opportunity to break free finally becomes a real possibility. If only her body didn't react to him with such abandon. If only his touch didn't make her lose the will to do anything but be with him.With the Magus closing in on them, and Peter's life in danger, Adara must choose between her desire and her dreams.And with supernatural arson attacks sweeping the city, Peter must decide if a firefighter can ever really trust a fire.Content Notes: Hot, Paranormal, Fantasy, Contemporary
