Sommario/riassunto	In the Fictional town of Beauville, anything is possible. Annabelle Macon left home to become somebody. When fired from her job in New York, she's anxious to come home. Home is where the heart is, and her heart has always been set on Jackson Storme. But when opportunity presents Anna with an exciting new job back in New York, she doesn't know what to do. Sheriff Jackson Storme is happy being deemed a player. He hasn't found the one woman to call his own, and that's okay with him. When his baby sister pulls up to the Fourth of July picnic and her passenger steps out, Jackson realizes his woman has made herself known. Will Anna and Jackson's fire only burn for one night, or can he convince her that the best burn is A Slow Burn...Multicultural Romance/IR Southern Contemporary +18 Mature Readers Short Read
